Todd G. Gongwer is first and foremost a husband and a father. Beyond that, he has spent nearly twenty years developing his expertise in leadership, team, and cultural dynamics through a broad range of experiences spanning the world of business and athletics. He also served as an assistant college basketball coach for one of the most successful programs in the country during the 1990's when the team won three NAIA II National Championships in four seasons. Todd currently presides over Nelson's USA, a multi-state food service franchise company.

Todd was inspired to write and release "LEAD . . . for God's Sake!", a parable for finding the heart of leadership. The book takes readers on a compelling journey deep into the heart of leadership where the answers to some of the most important questions in leadership can be found. Todd challenges his listeners to think deeper about what truly lies at the heart of their purpose in leadership, and in life, spurring them on to become the very best leader they were meant to be.

Program includes testimonies from local athletes and coaches.

There will also be an opportunity to help send students to camp.

"I recently attended the FCA Leadership camp on St. Simons Island and had one of the most exciting and motivating experiences I have ever had at a camp. I want to thank FCA for providing my family with the scholarship so I had a chance to go."
